

Community Guidelines

The Short:

We want JSECommunity to continue to be an authentic and safe place for online gaming events, inspiration and expression. Help us foster this community. Post only your own photos and videos and always follow the law. Respect everyone on the JSECommunity, don't spam people or post nudity.

The Long:

JSECommunity is a reflection of our diverse community of cultures, ages, and beliefs. We created the Community Guidelines so you can help us foster and protect this amazing community. By using JSECommunity, you agree to these guidelines and our Terms and Conditions. We're committed to these guidelines and we hope you are too. Overstepping these boundaries may result in deleted content or other restrictions.

Share only photos and videos that you've taken or have the right to share:

As always, you own the content you post on JSECommunity . Remember to post authentic content, and don't post anything you've copied or collected from the Internet that you don't have the right to post.

Post photos and videos that are appropriate for a diverse audience:

We know that there are times when people might want to share nude images that are artistic or creative in nature, but for a variety of reasons, we don't allow nudity on the JSECommunity. This includes photos, videos, and some digitally-created content that show sexual intercourse, genitals, and close-ups of fully-nude buttocks. It also includes some photos of female nipples.

Foster meaningful and genuine interactions:

Help us stay spam-free by not artificially collecting likes, followers, or shares, posting repetitive comments or content, or repeatedly contacting people for commercial purposes without their consent. Don't offer money or giveaways of money in exchange for likes, followers, comments or other engagement. Don't post content that engages in, promotes, encourages, facilitates, or admits to the offering, solicitation or trade of fake and misleading user reviews or rating. You don't have to use your real name on the JSECommunity , but we do require JSECommunity users to provide us with accurate and up to date information. Don't impersonate others and don't create accounts for the purpose of violating our guidelines or misleading others.

Joint Service Events Community

Follow the law:

JSECommunity is not a place to support or praise terrorism, organized crime, or hate groups. Offering sexual services, buying or selling firearms, alcohol, and tobacco products between private individuals, and buying or selling illegal or prescription drugs (even if legal in your region) are also not allowed. JSECommunity also prohibits the sale of live animals between private individuals, though brick-and-mortar stores may offer these sales. No one may coordinate poaching or selling of endangered species or their parts. Remember to always follow the law when offering to sell or buy other regulated goods. Accounts promoting online gambling, online real money games of skill or online lotteries must get our prior written permission before using any of our products. We have zero tolerance when it comes to sharing sexual content involving minors or threatening to post intimate images of others.

Respect other members of the JSECommunity:

We want to foster a positive, diverse community. We remove content that contains credible threat or hate speech, content that targets private individuals to degrade or shame them, personal information meant to blackmail or harass someone, and repeated unwanted messages. It's never OK to encourage violence or attack anyone based on their race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religious affiliation, disabilities, or diseases. When hate speech is being shared to challenge it or to raise awareness, we may allow it. In those instances, we ask that you express your intent clearly. Serious threats of harm to public and personal safety aren't allowed. This includes specific threats of physical harm as well as threats of theft, vandalism, and other financial harm. We carefully review reports of threats and consider many things when determining whether a threat is credible.

Be thoughtful when posting newsworthy events:

We understand that many people use JSECommunity to share important and newsworthy events. Some of these issues can involve graphic images. Because so many different people and age groups use JSECommunity, we may remove videos of intense, graphic violence to make sure JSECommunity stays appropriate for everyone. We understand that people often share this kind of content to condemn, raise awareness or educate. If you do share content for these reasons, we encourage you to caption your photo with a warning about graphic violence. Sharing graphic images for sadistic pleasure or to glorify violence is never allowed.

Joint Service Events Community

Help us keep the community strong:

Each of us is an important part of the JSECommunity. If you see something that you think may violate our guidelines, please help us by using our built-in reporting option. We have a global team that reviews these reports and works as quickly as possible to remove content that doesn't meet our guidelines.

When you complete the report, try to provide as much information as possible, such as links, usernames, and descriptions of the content, so we can find and review it quickly. We may remove entire posts if either the imagery or associated captions violate our guidelines.

You may find content you don't like, but doesn't violate the Community Guidelines. If that happens, you can unfollow or block the person who posted it. If there's something you don't like in a comment on one of your posts, you can delete that comment.

Many disputes and misunderstandings can be resolved directly between members of the community. If one of your photos or videos was posted by someone else, you could try commenting on the post and asking the person to take it down. If that doesn't work, you can file a copyright report. Don't target the person who posted it by posting screenshots and drawing attention to the situation because that may be classified as harassment.

Thank you for helping us create one of the best communities in the world.
